Subject: Re: exporting floats
Posted by penteado on Thu, 19 Aug 2010 18:44:46 GMT

On Aug 19, 3:23 pm, matin <mar...@bier-mail.de> wrote:
> I want to make a floating point file i can use in a GIS, preferably a > Tiff.
> Let's say I have some Tiffs with NDVI values (0-1). I import them in > IDL, make some calculations, and get a new variable I want to export > to my GIS. But I need floating point grids.
> Or another example: I import a variable of a ncdf with floating point > values. I shift it, and want to export it so I can use it in the GIS..

It seems you may be looking for the float (or double) keyword to write_tiff.