
Subject: Re: Official "release" of Coyote and Catalyst Libraries
Posted by [Paul Van Delst\[1\]](#) on Wed, 13 Oct 2010 15:15:16 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

David Fanning wrote:

- > Folks (and Paul van Delst, in particular),
- >
- > We have created an official "released" version of the
- > Coyote and Catalyst Libraries in the public SVN
- > repository. Users concerned with stability can
- > download from the release versions. On-going development
- > will continue in the trunk versions.

Yay! David, you are so great, so treMENDously huge, that I bow down before thee.

Now, excuse me as I go and create an svn:externals link in my own repository.....

cheers,

paulv

- >
- > We don't currently have a release "schedule", but we
- > expect 2-3 releases per year, as required.
- >
- > You can learn more here.
- >
- > <http://idl-coyote.googlecode.com/>
- >
- > Cheers,
- >
- > David
- >
- >