I apologize for my fault that the content of my sent letter to all of you included some matters concerning money. As a receiver of foreign country, originally, I regarded that the letter was legal in the internet because some of you sent it to me. Finally, I found that this was wrong for me.

About a week ago, I read such kind of letters in the news group talking how to make money honestly. At that time, I didn't pay attention at it. Until the day before, I had free time to play the computer and received a letter called "TO EARN FAST MONEY", I tried to follow the instructions mentioned in the letter and sent mail to all of you wrongly, regretly. Originally, I think this kind of message sounds good and interesting, so I tried it. Moreover I am a computer new user, I have learnt to use the computer for two weeks only. I don't know what I should not do in the Internet and the rules and laws in the Internet. But, as a result, I received mails from some of you and know that it may be illegal. Thus, I apologize for my mistake and fault.

Sincerely, through this letter, hope that if you received my letter, please forgive me. And if you have a chance to receive such kind of letter, please ignore them. This is my advice because I have done a wrong thing before. Finally, I will post a letter in the news group to tell other people not to do this silly thing again. And can anybody tell me how to cancel the News in the news group?
