Huh!? Well, that's a little embarrassing. :-(

As I say, it was a LONG weekend, and I just put the darn files in the wrong directory when I transferred them from my machine to the web page. Sorry for the confusion.

Ok, the link to the page describing the new files:

http://www.dfanning.com/graphics_tips/newoldcmds.html

The link to the Coyote Library, which everyone probably wants to update:

<http://www.dfanning.com/programs/coyoteprograms.zip>

Sheesh! It's gray, cold, and snowing here in Colorado this morning. A good day to head back to bed...

Cheers,

David
