Something like that, yes. :-)

It is interesting to me, because when I finished IDL Programming Techniques I was so tired of reading the darn thing I never wanted to read it again, ever!

I feel differently about this book. In fact, I can't wait until this inevitable marketing phase is over so I can get onto writing the next one! I have ta least three more books I want to write. But, everything in my plan depends on generating enough income to justify it. No income, and I'm afraid I'll have to go back to working for a living. :-(

So, yes, buy those books. My current plan is to end the pre-publication sale tomorrow and start opening this up to the world outside the IDL newsgroup. People who buy now will be judged favorably in the future. :-)

Cheers,

David
