I am sending you information on our organization, Citizen's Against Rainbow Colors. You are going to feel right at home joining us. :-)

Here is a very good article on why scientists should be worried about color:

<http://www.research.ibm.com/people/l/lloyd/color/color.HTM>

You can find a LOT of useful information about color on this web page:

Cheers,

David
