Thanks, Chris. I've extended the sale just one more day, since the books didn't arrive yesterday (too optimistic!) and I have an article about Coyote Graphics over on the AstroBetter blog this morning. I wanted to give those folks the opportunity at the pre-publication price, too.

If any of you astronomer types are using Coyote Graphics and want to make a comment on the AstroBetter article, it would help tremendously to get the word out. You will find the article here:

Cheers,

David
