
Subject: Re: right clicking in an IDL plot with a Mac
Posted by Robin Wilson on Thu, 07 Apr 2011 22:42:29 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On 07/04/2011 20:21, Barbara wrote:

>
> When I googled this issue, (literally right clicking for a mac in IDL)
> the only somewhat helpful hint was to use > defaults write com.apple.x11 wm_click_through -bool true
>
> However, their explanation is lost on me... if anyone knows how to fix > this issue and can make it blonde-simple (that's right, I'm blaming my > hair here) I'd appreciate it!

I don't know if it'll fix the problem, but the way to do what the google search suggested is to open the Terminal app on your mac and then type in the 'defaults write.....' line and press enter. This basically updates some of the settings inside OS X, and may (possibly...) fix your problem.

Cheers,

Robin
