
Subject: Re: Error signals / indices

Posted by hegde on Thu, 12 Dec 1996 08:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thanks for the help. Although I was expecting a better description of errors, this is good for now.

Thanks again for your help.

-M. Hegde

In article <davidf-ya023080000412962210000001@news.frii.com>, davidf@dfanning.com writes:

> M Hegde <hegde@news.gsfc.nasa.gov> writes:

>

>> Is there a comprehensive list of error signals (indices) and the >> corresponding exception causes?.

>

> Um, not sure what you mean by exception causes here. Sounds like > you might be a C programmer or something. :-)

>

> You can get a list of all the error messages associated with a particular > error number by doing this:

>

> IDL> FOR j=0, 500 DO PRINT, j, ' ', STRMESSAGE(j)

>

> Cheers!

>

> David

>

> -----

> David Fanning, Ph.D.

> Fanning Software Consulting

> 2642 Bradbury Court, Fort Collins, CO 80521

> Phone: 970-221-0438 Fax: 970-221-4762

> E-Mail: davidf@dfanning.com

> Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com>

> -----

>
