Subject: Re: Filled symbols with different color outlines Posted by Poonam Chandra on Fri, 15 Jul 2011 18:48:45 GMT View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Jul 15, 1:03 pm, Michael Galloy <mgal...@gmail.com> wrote:

> On 7/15/11 10:58 AM, Poonam Chandra wrote:

>

>> Hi,

- >> I am using Coyote's SYMCAT to get different symbols in my graph.
- >> However, I need the symbols with different fill colors and different
- >> outline. For example, if I want to use a symbol of filled circle with

Yes, thats what I am doing, first plotting the filled circle with sky blue color and then overplotting the same data with open circle with dark blue color. But then the problem is that how do I show those symbols using al_legend. I am either able to show only the skyblue filled circles or only the dark blue open circles in al_legend. This is where I am stuck.

Thanks

Poonam

>> 'sky blue' fill color and 'dark blue' outline, how do I do that?

>

- >> Thanks
- >> Poonam

>

- > Plot the data points twice: first with the fill color and then as an
- > outline.

>

- > Mike
- > --
- > Michael Galloywww.michaelgalloy.com
- > Modern IDL, A Guide to Learning IDL:http://modernidl.idldev.com
- > Research Mathematician
- > Tech-X Corporation