
Subject: Re: Filled symbols with different color outlines Posted by Poonam Chandra on Fri, 15 Jul 2011 18:48:45 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Jul 15, 1:03 pm, Michael Galloy <mgal...@gmail.com> wrote:

> On 7/15/11 10:58 AM, Poonam Chandra wrote:

>

>> Hi,

>> I am using Coyote's SYMCAT to get different symbols in my graph.

>> However, I need the symbols with different fill colors and different >> outline. For example, if I want to use a symbol of filled circle with

Yes, thats what I am doing, first plotting the filled circle with sky blue color and then overplotting the same data with open circle with dark blue color. But then the problem is that how do I show those symbols using al_legend. I am either able to show only the skyblue filled circles or only the dark blue open circles in al_legend. This is where I am stuck.

Thanks

Poonam

>> 'sky blue' fill color and 'dark blue' outline, how do I do that?

>

>> Thanks

>> Poonam

>

> Plot the data points twice: first with the fill color and then as an > outline.

>

> Mike

> --

> Michael Galloy www.michaelgalloy.com

> Modern IDL, A Guide to Learning IDL: <http://modernidl.idldev.com>

> Research Mathematician

> Tech-X Corporation
