Subject: Re: IDL 8.1 PostScript Output on a Sheet of Paper Posted by penteado on Mon, 26 Sep 2011 20:38:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Sep 26, 4:42 pm, David Fanning <n...@dfanning.com> wrote:

- > Michael Galloy writes:
- >> The LANDSCAPE keyword is for PDF files only. From the help:

- >> "LANDSCAPE
- >> Note: This keyword is valid only for PDF files.

>

- >> Set this keyword to indicate that the PDF output should be drawn in
- >> landscape orientation. The default is portrait orientation."

>

- > Ah, of course. Should have known. No reason for
- > landscape PostScript output, I guess. Thanks!

- > I suppose it is asking for too much to think I would
- > get an error message if I used a keyword that wasn't
- > allowed.

It sounds like the same limitations that Chris Torrence mentioned:

http://groups.google.com/group/comp.lang.idl-pvwave/browse_t hread/thread/68ee48aa7b427f20