
Subject: Re: IDL 8.1 PostScript Output on a Sheet of Paper

Posted by penteado on Mon, 26 Sep 2011 20:38:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Sep 26, 4:42 pm, David Fanning <n...@dfanning.com> wrote:

> Michael Galloy writes:

>> The LANDSCAPE keyword is for PDF files only. From the help:

>

>> "LANDSCAPE

>> Note: This keyword is valid only for PDF files.

>

>> Set this keyword to indicate that the PDF output should be drawn in >> landscape orientation. The default is portrait orientation."

>

> Ah, of course. Should have known. No reason for > landscape PostScript output, I guess. Thanks!

>

> I suppose it is asking for too much to think I would > get an error message if I used a keyword that wasn't > allowed.

It sounds like the same limitations that Chris Torrence mentioned:

http://groups.google.com/group/comp.lang.idl-pvwave/browse_thread/thread/68ee48aa7b427f20
