
Subject: Re: Pass variables into Newton or BRODYDEN for solving non-linear equations

Posted by Zhang Bo on Tue, 18 Oct 2011 15:47:19 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Oct 17, 9:20 pm, Beaker <mattjamesfran...@gmail.com> wrote:

> Yep that looks right, assuming you actually use the values A,B,C,D in > the LCL function (are they to replace the constants you have in there, > such as 223.1986 etc??).

yes, they replace T_s, Mmr_s etc. Thanks a lot!
