

---

Subject: Re: Pass variables into Newton or BROYDEN for solving non-linear equations

Posted by Matt Francis on Tue, 18 Oct 2011 01:20:51 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Yep that looks right, assuming you actually use the values A,B,C,D in the LCL function (are they to replace the constants you have in there, such as 223.1986 etc??).

---