
Subject: Unknown error

Posted by Steven Thiel on Thu, 30 Jan 1997 08:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I have recently written a procedure that opens and closes several files when run. Ocassionaly, I run accross the following error:

KW_MARK Too many levels deep

I have seen this before when running several procedures in one session that require the opening and reading of files. Could someone please tell me what this means and possibly how to keep it from happening?
