

---

Subject: Re: problem

Posted by Vincent Sarago on Thu, 19 Jul 2012 13:59:25 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

On Wednesday, July 18, 2012 10:39:16 PM UTC-4, dave poreh wrote:

> folks

> hi,

> when i open idl, it copy&#39;s 2 folders in my desktop (metadata, default). How could i fix this, I do not like it!!!

> Cheers,

> Dave

hi Dave,

Are you using idlde ?

Those directories are created when you first launch a new workbench (from idlde).

The .metadata can't be removed because it contain's all the preferences of the used workbench.

For the "Default" normally if you erase it from the IDE it won't appear after.

if you are not using idlde you may launch idlde just to erase the "Default" dir.

Vincent

---