
Subject: Re: How to add trend line over Coyote graphics plot
Posted by David Fanning on Sat, 11 Aug 2012 18:35:57 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

gutewaqi writes:

> I have a time series data where the X-axis is month and Y-axis > is the value of my parameters. I plotted it using COYOTE GRAPHICS, > I want to add a linear line, which shows a trend of my parameter > over the time span considered, I tried it using LINFIT, but there > is a problem that it considers the Julian day values as a > number. Can any one help me Please?

A Julian day value is a number! I don't understand what the problem can be. Can you provide some code?

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com/>

Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thos speakest truth.")
