Subject: Re: compare 2-d array with vector
Posted by Heinz Stege on Mon, 24 Sep 2012 11:53:22 GMT

On Mon, 24 Sep 2012 13:39:44 +0200, Heinz Stege wrote:

> the use of the value_locate function is very helpful:
>
> subscripts=where(a eq b[value_locate(b,a)>0])
>
> Note that b must be sorted and must have 2 or more elements.

AFAIK some IDL Developers are reading this newsgroup. Here is a request for an enhancement of the value_locate function:

Please let value_locate return result=-long(a lt b[0]) instead of throwing an error message, if b has 1 element only.

Would be nice. Thank you.

Heinz