Hi Hannah,

You write:

Well, welcome. I think you will find this newsgroup to be the largest collection of helpful IDL experts in the world. They LOVE to have newbies show up so they can strut their stuff!

Here are some gentle suggestions for how to ask a question on the newsgroup so that it has a good chance of being answered:

We are reasonably forgiving, but all very busy. A good question almost always gets a good answer.

Cheers,

David
