Subject: Re: I have a problem!
Posted by David Fanning on Wed, 12 Dec 2012 13:51:42 GMT

Jonathan Reboucas writes:

> i have this variables into my project:
> GRID_SPACING   INT   = Array[2]
> IM   UINT   = Array[2048, 2048]
> INFO   STRUCT   = -> <Anonymous> Array[1]
> STR   STRUCT   = -> <Anonymous> Array[1]
> TABLAT   FLOAT   = Array[881, 849]
> TABLON   FLOAT   = Array[881, 849]
>
> im is a image, tablon is longitude and tablot is latitude. i have the spacing grid(gri_spacing), its
10. i want use this variables for create a georeferencing image. can be any raster format.

Well, these numbers don't make any sense in this context, so you are going to have to explain to us your theory on how this is suppose to work. :-)

Cheers,

David

--
David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: http://www.idlcoyote.com/
Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")