

---

Subject: Re: non-English language

Posted by David Fanning on Thu, 07 Mar 2013 17:39:14 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Chris Torrence writes:

> Or, if you have a font which contains the Cyrillic characters in their ASCII locations, then you can just use ASCII characters and change the font, like this:

>

> p=PLOT(y, TITLE='ABCDEFGH', FONT_NAME='Cyrillic')

>

> (You will need to determine the correct font name.)

Humm. I hope it is that easy. This page suggests maybe it's not:

http://winrus.com/fonts\_e.htm

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.idlcoyote.com/>

Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")

---