
Subject: Re: cgPlotS and cgColorBar issues
Posted by David Fanning on Tue, 19 Mar 2013 00:54:42 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

allison jaynes writes:

> But add the FORMAT to those Y values and suddenly the tick labels show up on both the right and left of the vertical color bar! (Regardless of using the /right keyword or not):
>
> IDL> cgColorBar, range=[1,300], /Vertical, YTICKFORMAT='(F4.0)', /Window
>
> What am I doing wrong?

Yes, when I type this command I see labels on both sides of the bar.

But, if I type the command correctly:

```
IDL> cgColorBar, range=[1,300], /Vertical, FORMAT='(F4.0)', /Window
```

It works correctly.

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com/>
Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thos speakest truth.")
