Folks,

I just moved the next to last box of Coyote Graphics books from the bedroom into my office, which means there are only 40 of these books left. I have no current plans to do a second printing of these books, at least not in the full-color manner of the first printing, if at all. I will, of course, continue to sell the PDF version for as long as people want to buy it.

There has been a small run on these books lately, probably due to the influence of the Coyote Gallery on the web page. If you have been thinking you might like to have one, this would be a good time to make a decision. If you request an autographed copy, I feel certain you can get your money back by selling the darn thing on E-bay. ;-)

There will be some kind of special gift for the person who causes the last box of books to be moved out of the bedroom. I don't know what it will be yet. My wife hasn't told me, but her demeanor suggests it might be worth having!

Cheers,

David
