So the site exists but apparently needs a login. Attempting the straight ftp route described by Ray Sterner (<http://cow.physics.wisc.edu/~craigm/idl/archive/msg04856.htm>) was also unsuccessful with "no answer from fermi.jhuapl.edu".

I recently contacted Ray Sterner - the author/maintainer of the APL libs. He stated that the problem with the website is with a change in the directories - he posted a new version (and probably temporary) here: http://fermi.jhuapl.edu/idl/idlusr_clean_2013Apr03.zip
