
Subject: Re: how to use mpfit fitting routine
Posted by bstecklu on Wed, 15 May 2013 08:36:56 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

idlhelp wrote:

> Dear All, I have an observed spectrum in which I have wavelength (W_o) and > flux (F_o). I want to compare that with the 200 different synthetic spectrum > in order to obtain the best free parameter. I want to use MPFIT routine for > that. I have gone through their webpage but It seems very complicated to me > to use. Does anyone know how to use to fit the spectrum.
>
> Any help will be appreciated
>
> thanks

Perhaps this will solve your problem or provide guidance to write something from scratch.

The Hammer: An IDL Spectral Typing Suite

<http://www.astro.washington.edu/users/slh/hammer/>

Regards, Bringfried
