
Subject: Re: contour_plus using Coyote Graphics System (CGS)

Posted by David Fanning on Wed, 24 Jul 2013 12:42:28 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Nafiseh Masoumzadeh writes:

> after I searched a lot, finally I found what I exactly want for my two variables x, y to have a density plot of them.

>

> the routine is

> http://www.astro.washington.edu/users/jrad/contour_plus.pro

>

> but the problem is that I want to have a proper output with color bar and possible to save it in ps format.

> I'd appreciate any help.

Try PS_Start/PS_End, called in the same way they are called in the density plot example in the Coyote Gallery:

<http://www.idlcoyote.com/gallery/index.html#DENSITYPLOT>

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.idlcoyote.com/>

Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")
