
Subject: Re: Problems with control the size of the lat-lon tick labels and the position of my colorbar

Posted by atmospheric physics on Fri, 13 Dec 2013 14:47:58 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Sorry for deleting my messages. I have found solution to my problems and so I thought others shall not waste time in answering to my post.

On Thursday, December 12, 2013 9:13:17 PM UTC+1, AMS wrote:

> Madhavan, please stop deleting your messages (it looks like you have done it twice today), it makes the discussion less useful for others looking back through the archives.

>

>

>

> On Thursday, December 12, 2013 2:51:27 PM UTC-5, David Fanning wrote:

>

>> Madhavan Bomidi writes:

>

>>

>

>>

>

>>

>

>>> I want to divide my plotting area into 2 columns and 2 rows and include this figure in the first column and first row. I was playing with almost all keywords basing on the descriptions for `cgMap_Set`, `chMap_Grid`, `cgColorbar` and still unable to understand properly what I am doing wrong in my figure?

>

>>

>

>>

>

>>

>

>> I put a new example program in the Coyote Gallery today that shows you >> how to create multiple plots, each plot with its own annotations, such >> as color bars. You can find it here:

>

>>

>

>

>>

>

>

>>

>
>>
>
>>
>
>> http://www.idlcoyote.com/gallery/index.html#MULTIANNOTATE_PLOT
>
>>
>
>>
>
>>
>
>>
>
>> Time spent answering question and creating a new gallery plot: 2.5
>
>>
>
>> hours. Donations so far this month: $350.
>
>>
>
>>
>
>>
>
>>
>
>> Cheers,
>
>>
>
>>
>
>>
>
>> David
>
>>
>
>> --
>
>>
>
>> David Fanning, Ph.D.
>
>>
>
>> Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
>
>>

```
>
>> Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: http://www.idlcoyote.com/
>
>>
>
>> Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")
```
