
Subject: Re: Axis Labels

Posted by David Fanning on Tue, 31 Dec 2013 18:15:38 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

David Fanning writes:

```
>
> Gompie writes:
>
>> Thanks for that. But my axis fonts and numbers are not of good quality, appear thick and thin.
>>
>> https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B-c7rZr_rKoSbnQ1TzcwTTNSM1E/edit?usp=sharing
>>
>> I am using the cgplot command i listed earlier and to make gif I use...
>>
>> outfile="example.gif"
>> print,outfile
>> WRITE_GIF, outfile, TVRD()
>> result = cgSnapshot(FILENAME="example",/gif,/nodialog)
>
> I can imagine. :-)
>
> I would install ImageMagick and do this:
>
> cgps_open, 'example.gif'
> cgPlot, ...
> cgps_close
```

Or, more simply, since you only have one cgPlot command:

```
cgPlot, ..., Output='example.gif'
```

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.idlcoyote.com/>

Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")
