Paul van Delst writes:

> All of my IDL-based png output is created thusly (for an imaginary FG > object "p"):
>
>   p.save, "file.png", HEIGHT=600
>
> The height value for a default sized function graphics window creates > pngs that fit nicely when I attach and display them in my trac scm > ticket logs. :o)
>
> Good size for emailing too.

Yes, this is what I hoped to do, too. But, the output from doing this on my machine in IDL 8.2.3 is crap. Very low resolution. :-(

Maybe this has been fixed in IDL 8.3?

Cheers,

David
--
David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: http://www.idlcoyote.com/
Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")