

---

Subject: Re: How to create a colour table in IDL?

Posted by David Fanning on Thu, 15 Jan 2015 17:33:30 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Madhavan Bomidi writes:

> Thanks for the advice. While I could get the plot as desired, I still find the axis, ticks and labels in 'red' colour (for both the colorbar and plot).

>

> Am I missing something? How can I change the color of axis, ticks and labels to default 'black' color?

Start your color indices at 1 instead of 0. Hint: see the BOTTOM keyword. Color index 0 is almost always used as the background color. See any color article I've ever written for an example. :-)

Cheers,

David

--

David Fanning, Ph.D.

Fanning Software Consulting, Inc.

Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.idlcoyote.com/>

Sepore ma de ni thue. ("Perhaps thou speakest truth.")

---