I called last week about ftp access, and they said 2-4 weeks.
Give them a ring next week to see if it's available.

: : would be _really_ nice is if I could just download it from the : : RSI site. Of course, it'd be even nicer if it was free too :)

: I thought that this was (or will be shortly) possible too. You
: would of course have to have a valid support contract, but then
: RSI will issue you the appropriate license.dat file via email.
