
Subject: Re: cropping jpeg image
Posted by Phillip Bitzer on Wed, 17 Jun 2015 18:46:32 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Wednesday, June 17, 2015 at 8:44:26 AM UTC-5, kpaa...@gmail.com wrote:

> i have opened a jpeg image in idl using > tv,image,true=1
>
> now i want to crop only the central region of the sun where sunspots are present.... for these i used the cursor command and placed it in low left and right---got the co-ordinates----and then placed the cursor at right top--got the x and y.....then i used image=image[low x:topx,lowy:topy]
>
> but im not getting the image cropped....instead getting > % subscript range values of the form low:high must be >=0,<size,with low<=high:image

What are the values for low_x, top_x, etc? What are the dimensions of image?
