Hi all

Has anyone yet received a copy of the release version 5.0?

Since it's Sunday June 1st, the pre-release beta has expired, and won't start unless I lie to the system clock. No big deal, but it would be nice if the final product arrived soon. What would be really nice is if I could just download it from the RSI site. Of course, it'd be even nicer if it was free too :)
