

---

Subject: Compare satellite images

Posted by shilosh on Thu, 09 Jul 2015 15:44:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Hi,

any idea how can I Compare satellite images from 2 different instruments which have different resolution, different projection and different spatial domain?

I have Meteosat Second Generation (MSG) file which is in Near Side Perspective projection and Landsat8 image in UTM projection. I want to do a pixel by pixel comparison.

I wrote a code that reproject the MSG data into UTM, but how do I proceed from here?

Shilo

-----

Shilo Shiff

Department of Geography and Environment

Bar-Ilan University

---