
Subject: Re: PLOT and LEGEND Function Graphic
Posted by ed.thiemann on Tue, 29 Sep 2015 16:36:14 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Saturday, January 18, 2014 at 9:43:33 PM UTC-7, Gompie wrote:

> Hi,
> Now that I have made the mistake of using the function graphics over Dave's cgplot functions can you please help me with the following error that I am getting in function graphics.
>
> When I give a=PLOT(x,y, NAME="2008/2009")
> I get the error.
> PLOT: The identifier property value cannot contain '/' characters.
>
> I have to use NAME keyword because I later on use the LEGEND function graphic which uses
NAME to identify the plot.
> Any help in either getting the PLOT to accept the "/" or to get the LEGEND to show "2008/2009"
against the target plot.
> GlanPlon

You can also use a backslash instead \"

Ed
