

---

Subject: Re: How do you using the IDL to add a straight line of 45 degrees inclination to scatter plot of the square?

Posted by Phillip Bitzer on Fri, 02 Oct 2015 13:31:08 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

- > I want to add a line of 45 degrees inclination to scatter diagram using the IDL.
- > How do you rewrite this program?
- > Someone help me please.

As yourself this: how do you mathematically define a straight line? Then, what does "45 degrees inclination" mean for the slope of the line?

Once you have that, you just overplot this line on your plot.

---