Subject: Re: Adding or averaging multiple grid arrays returns all NaNs
Posted by   on Fri, 19 Feb 2016 13:05:35 GMT

Make n_days an array of the same size as total_grid. Then each time you add values to some cells in total_grid, also add unity to the corresponding cells in n_days. Then do the final division by n_days only for the elements where n_days is non-zero.