
Subject: Re: Programmatically close all function graphics windows

Posted by lecacheux.alain on Thu, 25 Aug 2016 16:27:52 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Le jeudi 25 août 2016 16:50:20 UTC+2, wlandsman a écrit :

> Is there a way to programmatically close all function graphics windows (as opposed to clicking the close button). In direct graphics the following code will do this

>
> Device,window_state = w ;Get a list of all windows
> g = where(w,/null) ;Which ones are open?
> for each win,g do wdelete,win ;Delete the open windows
>

> In function graphics, if you have the all the plot reference objects, say p1, p2, p3 then you can close the windows with p1.close, p2.close,p3.close But what if you haven't saved the plot reference objects?

>
>
> Thanks, -Wayne

You might use GETWINDOWS() function.
alx.
