Harris Geospatial has redesigned their Website

<http://www.harrisgeospatial.com/ProductsandTechnology/Software/IDL.aspx> so hard-coded links to their Website might no longer work.

The documentation links

( http://www.harrisgeospatial.co/docs/using\_idl\_home.html) have not been changed, however.

Most of the Website changes seem to be cosmetic, but there seems to be a stronger emphasis on ENVI and geospatial products, and less emphasis on IDL as a standalone software.
