
Subject: Function/procedure for autocorrelation function

Posted by ryba on Mon, 27 Sep 1993 21:20:11 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I'm sure it's been done, and I could whip one up with a little thought, but does anyone have a procedure/function to perform an autocorrelation function on an array? I mean, a loop and TOTAL can do the trick, but I'd like to find something possibly faster, and ideally maybe something to handle not perfectly evenly sampled data (a later need).

Thanks in advance.

--

Dr. Marty Ryba | Generation X:

MIT Lincoln Laboratory | Too young to be cynical,
ryba@ll.mit.edu | too old to be optimistic.

Of course nothing I say here is official policy, and Laboratory affiliation is for identification purposes only, blah, blah, blah....
