Well, now, there is an idea!

You can write the widget parts, Pavel. I'll get Ben Tupper to write the object parts. I'll play tennis and rake in the cash.

Please contact me ASAP!!!

be a contributing author, and you will never have this problem again :-)

Hello,

David is being too modest (or maybe he's getting shy.) Follow the link at the bottom of his posting, get your checkbook out. His book is a wonderful intro/manual/guide/bible even though it doesn't address objects.

Ben

P.S. I think I get a 20% referral fee. Right, David?
