That seems like a pretty sneaky way of RSI to expand IDL capabilities for free and charge the customers thousands of dollars for these great enhancements! I hope you get your share of the pie. :-)

Uh, while we are on this topic, I thought I'd just mention that the tennis team I play on (not the one I coach) won the State Championship this weekend by sweeping all 12 of our matches. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. Let's just say I know you could care less about this, but I had to tell someone and you're the only friends I have outside of tennis. :-)

That's the beauty of David's posts. You never know if he's busting your chops or just plain sardonic.
