Oh, dear. The browser wars!

Humm, I'm not sure. I'm using Mozilla Firefox as my browser and no problems there. The page validates without errors.

But I can't see the images, either, with Internet Explorer, even the ones on my local machine.

Does this have something to do with the latest Windows XP service pack 2!? I can't even open a local JPEG file with the File->Open in IE. :-(

Cheers,

David

Oh, just one of those little things...

Should work now. :-)
