Subject: Re: Overlaying annotations
Posted by Mort Canty on Sun, 26 Sep 2004 09:48:34 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Jeferson E. wrote:

> Hi!
>
> I'm using ENVI/IDL to produce NOAA images of Brazil. The images are > wrote into JPEG format. I would like to know a way to overlay an > annotation (e.g. the date, hour, satellite) on these JPEGs. Is it > possible? Any comments are welcome!
>
> Regards!
> Jeferson

Just use the display menu OVERLAY/ANNOTATION. Works with any format.

Best

Mort

---

Subject: Re: Overlaying annotations
Posted by jcesq on Mon, 27 Sep 2004 13:32:15 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hello Mort!

Yes, I have used the overlay/annotation menu. But I would like to do that automatically throught an IDL routine.

I already have a routine to process the NOAA images automatically and to produce a JPEG. But I must overlay an annotation on these JPEGs.

Thanks at any rate,
Julio

"Mort Canty" <m.canty@fz-juelich.de> wrote in message news:<cj639h$cp73$1@zam602.zam.kfa-juelich.de>...
> Jeferson E. wrote:
>
>> Hi!
>>
>> I'm using ENVI/IDL to produce NOAA images of Brazil. The images are >> wrote into JPEG format. I would like to know a way to overlay an >> annotation (e.g. the date, hour, satellite) on these JPEGs. Is it >> possible? Any comments are welcome!

>>
>> Regards!
>> Jeferson
>
> Just use the display menu OVERLAY/ANNOTATION. Works with any format.
>
> Best
>
> Mort

---