Folks,

Sigh...

I'd love to be a JAVA programmer, but the JAVA newsgroups are SO tiresome. Such bickering. Such nonsense.

Do you have any idea how special this group is?
It is VERY hard to walk away from people with such cheery dispositions and willingness to help people who sometimes ask silly questions. This newsgroup is the very best part about working with IDL. I don't know how anyone leaves here! :-)

Cheers,

David
