Subject: Re: Turning function return into array & subscripting (Was: Re: rotating 3d array: help for the braindead!)
Posted by Fergus Gallagher on Fri, 17 Feb 1995 11:57:16 GMT

black@signal.dra.hmg.gb (John Black) wrote:
>
> In the post I saw this
>
> In article <3hspmc$t8a@kwuz.nerc-keyworth.ac.uk>, >> s = (size(image))(1:3)
>
> I thought that this was maybe an IDL feature, but it turned out to work with > PV-WAVE v5.0. I was stunned. I've looked high & low through the manuals to > find out more about this feature,. I looked in everywhere I could think of but > could not find any reference to this feature. So could some kind soul help me > out of misery and point out where in the PV-WAVE manuals this feature is dealt > with.
>
It's not in the IDL manuals either (at least, not in any obviuos place)
- I discovered it by accident.

Fergus