
Subject: Re: how to generate latitude/longitude image from projected image?

Posted by d.poreh on Tue, 23 Oct 2007 08:30:24 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Oct 23, 9:48 am, highstone <gaolei...@gmail.com> wrote:

- > I have a iamge with coordinate and projection, how to extract the
- > latitude/longitude number for each pixel and generate their images?
- > I have ENVI+IDL, also ERDAS and ARCGIS, but I don't know how to do.
- > thank you.

Just put your Lat-long in 2 dimensional array and extract your corespondinig pixel value by this expersion:

Envi_convert_file_coordinates,fid,x,y,lat,long(with no ending) and then you have x a y (fid is your image).
cheers
