Folks,

It is will a great deal of mixed emotions and feelings that I announce that Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming has been sold to The MathWorks. You can read more about it here:

http://www.dfanning.com/misc_tips/guidesold.html

I greatly and deeply appreciate the support of all the fine people on this newsgroup.

Cheers,

David

Will those of us who have downloaded IDL code from your site get free upgrades to the new Matlab versions? Or will we have to pay again?
