Subject: autocorrelation with Missing Values
Posted by matthias.demuzere on Wed, 18 Jun 2008 09:26:13 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hi,

I would like to perform an autocorrelation with a few missing values in the array (I used 'Nan' and blank spaces as missing values). Now, If I try the routine a_correlate, the calculated effective degrees of freedom results in Nan, and so is also my new correlation coefficient.

Does anybody know how I can solve this?

Thank you!
Matthias